

All about Chinese New Year Use these links to learn all about Chinese New Year, how it is celebrated and why it's so important- Video 1, Video 2, Story 1, Story 2.	English task Complete the Chinese New Year reading comprehension, making sure that you answer each question in a full sentence. The resource is on the website.	Craft Make your own Chinese Zodiac. Use the zodiac symbols on the website to help.
Craft Make your own Chinese Dragon using this video tutorial to help you. If you don't have coloured card, you can use plain paper that you have coloured in.	Chinese New Year Activities	Cookery Have a go at making some traditional Chinese food at home. You could make Chinese dumplings, using this recipe, or you could make whatever Chinese food you like! What a treat for your family!
Mandarin Use the resources on the website to practice writing numbers in Mandarin. Perhaps you could make a red envelope and write greetings on the front in Mandarin- look up greetings online.		Maths- Crack the Code! Use the resource in the website to crack the code, while practicing your maths skills. There are a few different levels of challenge to choose from.